

Letter of Acknowledgement for Business Partners

Anti-Bribery and Corruption

The Compliance Committee of VSTECS Berhad (“VSTECS” or “the Company”) and all its subsidiary companies within the VSTECS group, hereinafter referred to as “the Group”, require that all vendors, suppliers, service providers and resellers (“Business Partner”) to execute the following acknowledgment:

1. The Group is committed to complying with the Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission Act 2009 and its 2018 amendment (“MACCA”) that prohibit bribery and corruption. Business Partners of the Group are required to comply with applicable laws including MACCA, regulations and codes relating to Anti-Bribery and Corruption (“the Relevant Laws”), while conducting business with the Group, including any direct or indirect or multi-party business transaction(s)¹ (“Transaction”) with the Group.
2. The undersigned Business Partner is strictly prohibited to offer or receive any form of bribe, kickback or gratification including any such intentions to or from the Group, its employees and associates, public officials and private persons as an inducement, incentive or reward, or to gain any advantage or any other purpose connected to any Transaction.
3. The undersigned Business Partner hereby gives assurance to the Group that it complies with the Relevant Laws in its business conduct with all associated parties in respect of any Transaction.
4. The undersigned Business Partner hereby acknowledges that it has reviewed and agreed with the Group’s Code of Conduct and Anti-Bribery and Corruption Policy which are listed on VSTECS website: <https://www.vstecs.com.my>.
5. Should the Business Partner breach any of the terms of this letter, the Group reserves the right to revoke or terminate all or any part of the Transaction, agreement or contract with the Business Partner, without any liability whatsoever. Such revocation and termination shall be without prejudice to any other rights or remedies that the Group may have under the terms of the applicable agreement, contract or any applicable laws and regulations.
6. Should there be any potential violation of the Relevant Laws committed by any person (whether from within the Group or any external party) or any breach of this letter, the Business Partners shall report the matter to the Group soonest possible via the channel at VSTECS Whistle Blowing Policy and Procedures listed on the website at <https://www.vstecs.com.my>.
7. In the event that the Business Partner is determined to be in breach of the Relevant Laws, the Business Partner shall wholly indemnify the Group at all times for any loss and damage sustained by the Group.

Yours faithfully,

CHAN PUAY CHAI
Chairman of the Compliance Committee
